

Samuel Pepys' Diary

Here are some extracts from Samuel Pepys' Diary. Cut them out and stick them in the correct order on the time line.

Sunday:- I told the king about the fire.
The churches, houses and all were on fire and flaming at once.

Wednesday:- The king helped to fight the fire.

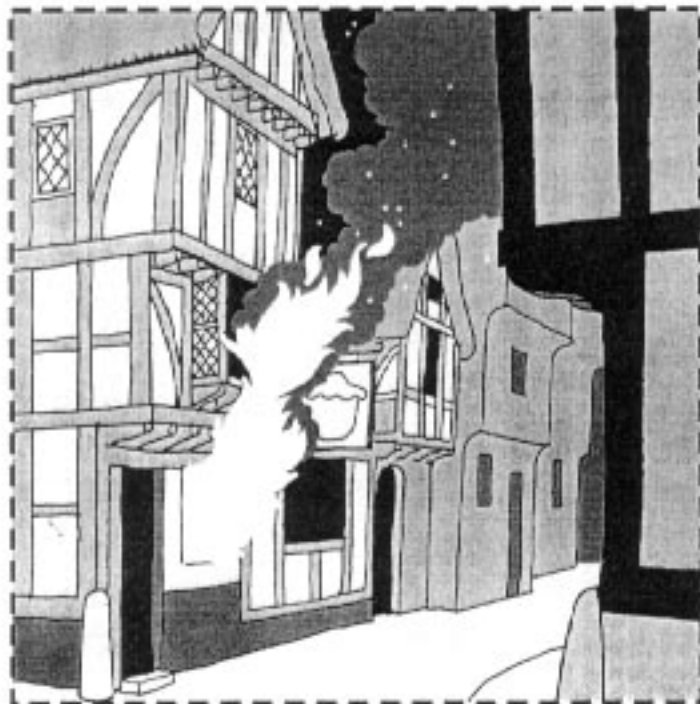

Tuesday:- I buried my chese and wine in the garden.

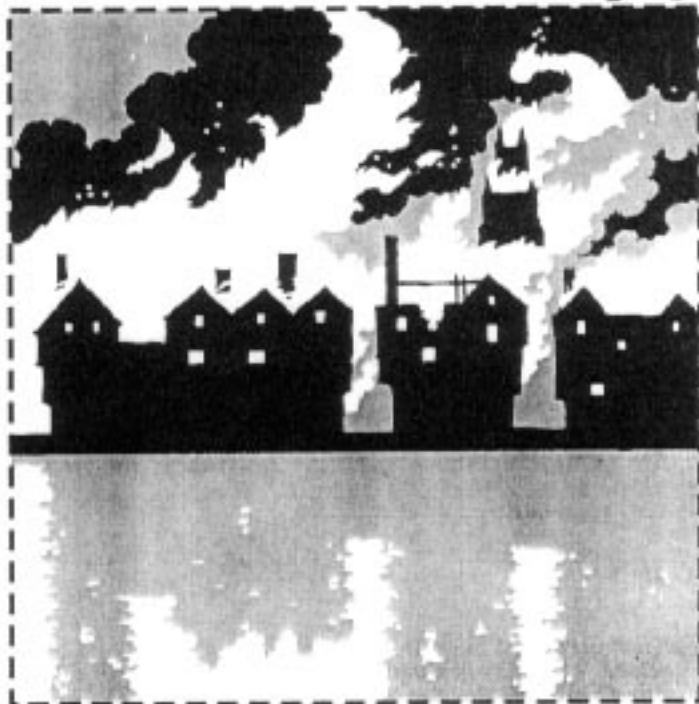

Monday:- The streets and highways are crowded with people.

The Story of the Great Fire of London

Cut out the pictures and writing. Match them and stick them in your book in the right order.

The King helped to fight the fire.

The fire started in a baker's shop in Pudding lane.

The fire burned for five days.

Many people left London.